Customs Clearance DHL may perform any of the following activities on Shipper's or Receiver's behalf in order to provide its services : (1) complete any documents, amend product or service codes, and pay any duties, taxes or penalties required under applicable laws and regulations ("Customs Duties"), (2) act as Shipper's forwarding agent for customs and export control purposes and as Receiver solely for the purpose of designating a customs broker to perform customs clearance and entry and (3) redirect the Shipment to Receiver's customs broker or other address upon request by any person who DHL believes in its reasonable opinion to be authorised. 2. Unacceptable Shipments A Shipment is deemed unacceptable if: • no customs declaration is made when required by applicable customs regulations, • it contains counterfeit goods, animals, bullion, currency, gem stones; weapons, explosives and ammunition; human remains; illegal items, such as ivory and narcotics and other goods as may be described at http://www.dhl.com/express_import_guidelines, • it is classified as hazardous material, dangerous goods, prohibited or restricted articles by IATA (International Air Transport Association), ICAO (International Civil Aviation Organisation), ADR (European Road Transport Regulation on dangerous goods) or other relevant organisation ("Dangerous Goods"), • its address is incorrect or not properly marked or its packaging is defective or inadequate to ensure safe transportation with ordinary care in handling, 3. Deliveries and Undeliverables Shipments cannot be delivered to PO boxes or postal codes. Shipments are delivered to the Receiver's address given by Shipper but not necessarily to the named Receiver personally. Shipments to addresses with a central receiving area will be delivered to that area. DHL may notify Receiver of an upcoming delivery or a missed delivery. Receiver may be offered alternative delivery options such as delivery on another day, no signature required, redirection or collection at a DHL Service Point, as further described at: http://www.ondemand.dhl.com/. Shipper may exclude certain delivery options on request. If the Shipment is deemed to be unacceptable as described in Section 2, or it has been undervalued for customs purposes, or Receiver cannot be reasonably identified or located, or Receiver refuses delivery or to pay Customs Duties or other Shipment charges, DHL shall use reasonable efforts to return the Shipment to Shipper at Shipper's cost, failing which the Shipment may be released, disposed of or sold without incurring any liability whatsoever to Shipper or anyone else, with the proceeds applied against Customs Duties, Shipment charges and related administrative costs with the balance of the proceeds of a sale to be returned to Shipper. DHL shall have the right to destroy any Shipment which any law prevents DHL from returning to Shipper as well as any 4. Inspection DHL has the right to open and inspect a Shipment without notice for security or customs or other valid reasons. 5. Shipment Charges and Fees DHL's Shipment charges are calculated according to the higher of actual or volumetric weight per piece and any Shipment may be re-weighed and remeasured by DHL to confirm this calculation. Shipper, or the Receiver when DHL acts on Receiver's behalf, shall pay or reimburse DHL for all Shipment or other charges due, or Customs Duties owed for services provided by DHL or incurred by DHL on Shipper's or Receiver's behalf. Payment of Customs Duties may be requested prior to delivery. If DHL uses its credit with the Customs Authorities or advances any Customs Duties on behalf of Shipper or Receiver, or redirects a Shipment to Receiver's customs broker, DHL shall be entitled to assess a fee, which is further described at http://www.ondemand.dhl.com/. 6. Such limits will also apply to national road transportation in the absence of any mandatory or lower liability limits in the applicable national transport law. If Shipper regards these limits as insufficient it must make a special declaration of value and request insurance or Document Protection as described in Section 8 or make its own insurance arrangements.
