

Shipmonk fulfilment and sales tax liability?

Hi Adeel,

Just to clarify—CeraThrive has always used third-party fulfilment for shipping.

Until May 2025, fulfilment was handled by a logistics team paid by LTV BV, and the warehouse itself was leased by LTV BV. From May 2025 onwards, Shipmonk took over shipping.

At no point did CeraThrive lease its own warehouse, operate a factory, or directly employ fulfilment staff. The address was used solely as a correspondence location.

Given that we never had physical presence or direct operations in that location, our understanding is that sales tax should not be due?

Best regards,
Sarah

Hi Sarah,

I hope you're doing well.

I wanted to apologize for the delay in my response. The reason I haven't been able to get back to you sooner is that I've been actively following up with the state. Due to high call volumes, I haven't been able to get through to the right department yet, but I'm still trying.

I aim to provide you with complete and accurate details, so I appreciate your patience while I work on this.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Hi Adeel,

Regardless of the US company closure, I'd like to move forward with discussing your role as fractional CFO. Could you please send over your rate and a quote for ongoing support?

I'm currently juggling a number of items—invoice generation, setting up the UK bank account, and navigating VAT implications for the new UK entity—so I'd really like to get clarity on how we can work together going forward.

It would also be helpful to include any support related to winding down the US entity in your proposal, so we can agree on a full scope and put a formal agreement in place.

Best regards,
Sarah

Hi Sarah,

Thank you so much for your trust in my services, truly appreciate the opportunity to support you.

As I mentioned during our earlier conversations, my Virtual CFO services are designed to comprehensively handle the financial and compliance side of your business, including but not limited to:

- Monthly Bookkeeping
- Monthly Payroll Management
- Monthly Contractor Payments Management
- Monthly Invoicing
- Monthly Accounts Payable Management
- Monthly Receivable Management
- Monthly Profit and Loss Reporting
- Monthly Budgeting
- Monthly Cash Flow Forecasting
- Monthly Financial Performance Analysis
- HMRC and Companies House Filing
- Strategic Financial Advice
- Chart of Accounts Setup

To begin with, I'd like to suggest we start with the basic package at $300 per month, which includes 20 dedicated hours of support each month covering all of the above areas. This fee will remain fixed for the first three months, allowing us both to better understand the exact hour requirement based on your operations.

If there's no major variation in expected business activity, this fee will remain consistent for the year ahead. Of course, any scope change will be mutually discussed and agreed upon transparently.

Regarding the US entity, I'm still awaiting a response from the state. If I don't hear back by tomorrow, I'll send you an email with the steps and a one-time fee quotation for the company's liquidation as discussed on our last call.

I look forward to supporting you across all fronts and simplifying the financial operations while you focus on growing the business.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Hi Adeel,

Please have a look at this draft contract and let me know your thoughts.

Since the company will be based in the UK, I've updated the monthly fee to GBP.

I'm now at my desk for the next three days and would like to start using the UK company from 1st August, with you taking over this role from then.

Does that suit you?

Hi Sarah,

I hope you are doing well.

Apologies for the delayed response, I was connecting all the dots to come up with a complete and reliable solution for you, and it took me a little longer than expected. Thank you for your patience.

Here's the conclusion of my work. Let's start with the first part, closing the company in the US. To properly close the company, we first need to take care of all pending filings, which include:

Federal Filings (for tax years 2024 & 2025):

- Form 1065
- Form 8804 & 8805

State Filings:

- Form TC-75 (Utah)
- Form F-1065 (Florida)

Sales Tax Filings:

- Four quarterly filings (Jul 2024 to Jun 2025), due by July 31st, 2025

Once these filings are done, we can proceed with dissolving the company in both Utah and Florida. Here's the cost breakdown:

- Form 1065, 8804 & 8805 (for both years): $900
- Form TC-75 (Utah): $150
- Form F-1065 (Florida): $150
- Utah Dissolution: $50
- Florida Dissolution: $50
- Sales Tax Filings: 4 quarters x $75 = $300

Total: $1,600 (includes all required filings and dissolution work)

Now, moving on to the second part, starting the new chapter in the UK under CERATHRIVE GLOBAL LTD. As we plan to close the US books in June 2025, the new books will begin from July 2025.

You mentioned VAT registration is already in process, just to share a quick point:

As a UK company, you're generally required to register for VAT if your UK taxable turnover exceeds £90,000. However, since you're not selling in the UK or importing goods here, you likely don't need to charge UK VAT. If VAT-registered, you'll still report these as zero-rated exports, and you can also reclaim input VAT on UK business expenses.

Another key point, HMRC does not allow directors to bypass PAYE by invoicing from another company or as a freelancer. So, your payroll must run through CERATHRIVE GLOBAL LTD.

Now, to start bookkeeping for the new entity:

- Please set up a new QuickBooks UK account and add me as an accountant.
- Once it's ready, I'll set up a chart of accounts, for which there's a one-time setup fee of $300.

I also reviewed the contract you shared for services. A couple of suggestions:

- Effective Start Date should be 1st July 2025, since that's when the new books begin.
- I operate on a post-paid basis: I send an invoice on the 25th of each month, and payment is due within 7 days. This lets me deliver work first and ensure it adds real value before billing, which I believe is fair and client-focused.

- If you plan to pay in GBP, kindly make it £250 for ease at my end.

Let me know if you have any questions or want to jump on a quick call to go over this.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Regards

Thank you. Let's get the agreement signed and in place. I can agree to the £250 per month, and we can start now. I've amended the agreement to reflect this—please update the payment section as needed. The document is now editable.

I've also set up QuickBooks and invited you. Wise is now connected. To cover the subscription, I've transferred £1,000 from CeraThrive LLC as a float for the new company.

I'll copy you into a message to my UK accountant. I suggest we arrange a meeting next week to get everyone on the same page. I'll be in California, so I'll get up early—it will still be afternoon UK time. Is there a preferred day for you between Tuesday and Friday?

- Form F-1065 (Florida)

Sales Tax Filings:

- Four quarterly filings (Jul 2024 to Jun 2025), due by July 31st, 2025

Once these filings are done, we can proceed with dissolving the company in both Utah and Florida. Here's the cost breakdown:

- Form 1065, 8804 & 8805 (for both years): $900
- Form TC-75 (Utah): $150
- Form F-1065 (Florida): $150
- Utah Dissolution: $50
- Florida Dissolution: $50
- Sales Tax Filings: 4 quarters x $75 = $300

Total: $1,600 (includes all required filings and dissolution work)

Now, moving on to the second part, starting the new chapter in the UK under CERATHRIVE GLOBAL LTD. As we plan to close the US books in June 2025, the new books will begin from July 2025.

You mentioned VAT registration is already in process, just to share a quick point:

As a UK company, you're generally required to register for VAT if your UK taxable turnover exceeds £90,000. However, since you're not selling in the UK or importing goods here, you likely don't need to charge UK VAT. If VAT-registered, you'll still report these as zero-rated exports, and you can also reclaim input VAT on UK business expenses.

Another key point, HMRC does not allow directors to bypass PAYE by invoicing from another company or as a freelancer. So, your payroll must run through CERATHRIVE GLOBAL LTD.

Now, to start bookkeeping for the new entity:

- Please set up a new QuickBooks UK account and add me as an accountant.
- Once it's ready, I'll set up a chart of accounts, for which there's a one-time setup fee of $300.

I also reviewed the contract you shared for services. A couple of suggestions:

- Effective Start Date should be 1st July 2025, since that's when the new books begin.
- I operate on a post-paid basis: I send an invoice on the 25th of each month, and payment is due within 7 days. This lets me deliver work first and ensure it adds real value before billing, which I believe is fair and client-focused.
- If you plan to pay in GBP, kindly make it £250 for ease at my end.

Let me know if you have any questions or want to jump on a quick call to go over this.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Just to clarify—CeraThrive has always used third-party fulfilment for shipping.

Until May 2025, fulfilment was handled by a logistics team paid by LTV BV, and the warehouse itself was leased by LTV BV. From May 2025 onwards, Shipmonk took over shipping.

At no point did CeraThrive lease its own warehouse, operate a factory, or directly employ fulfilment staff. The address was used solely as a correspondence location.

Given that we never had physical presence or direct operations in that location, our understanding is that sales tax should not be due?

Hi Sarah,

Apologies for the delayed response, I was connecting all the dots to come up with a complete and reliable solution for you, and it took me a little longer than expected. Thank you for your patience.

Here's the conclusion of my work. Let's start with the first part, closing the company in the US. To properly close the company, we first need to take care of all pending filings, which include:

Federal Filings (for tax years 2024 & 2025):

- Form 1065

Now, moving on to the second part, starting the new chapter in the UK under CERATHRIVE GLOBAL LTD.

As we plan to close the US books in June 2025, the new books will begin from July 2025.

You mentioned VAT registration is already in process, just to share a quick point:

As a UK company, you're generally required to register for VAT if your UK taxable turnover exceeds £90,000. However, since you're not selling in the UK or importing goods here, you likely don't need to charge UK VAT.

If VAT-registered, you'll still report these as zero-rated exports, and you can also reclaim input VAT on UK business expenses.

Another key point, HMRC does not allow directors to bypass PAYE by invoicing from another company or as a freelancer. So, your payroll must run through CERATHRIVE GLOBAL LTD.

Now, to start bookkeeping for the new entity:

- Please set up a new QuickBooks UK account and add me as an accountant.
- Once it's ready, I'll set up a chart of accounts, for which there's a one-time setup fee of $300.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Subject: CFO CeraThrive Global Ltd

Dear Nigel and Teresa and Kim,

I'd like to introduce you to Adeel, who has now come on board as the CFO for CeraThrive Global Ltd.

Please see his notes below regarding VAT registration and payroll.

I welcome your suggestions on how we can work effectively as a team going forward. Also, please note Adeel's comment on payroll, as this may have implications for my current company, CeraThrive Ltd.

I'm happy to arrange a call if that would be appropriate.

We're aiming to move operations to the UK on 31st July. Adeel is currently in the process of closing down the US company.

Kim – please note that we need the SHA agreement completed prior to 31st July as well.

Thanks all.

Best regards,

Sarah

Hi Nigel and Teresa,

I am on the government website registering for the EORI number - but I can't find the partnership's Corporation Tax Unique Taxpayer Reference (UTR)? Could you please help me with that?

It needs to be 10 or 13 digits long,

Thank-you,

Best - Sarah

Hi Teresa,

Would you mind having a look to see if you can help me with the VAT registration on the Government Gateway?

Following the instructions, I created a new Government Gateway user ID:

78 51 51 19 53 37

However, when I try to add VAT as directed, I receive an error saying the company details don't match.

Could you please try from your side and see if you're able to get any further? I am getting letters about penalty fines - but I just can't get on there.

Thanks very much.

Best regards,
Sarah
