Hi Guys,

I hope you had an enjoyable Christmas!

Adeel, could you please arrange to pay this Invoice immediately. Due to an original problem with shipping on our end we had To expedite some units for which we promised to honour the import duties. See attached.

Thanks,

Seb Bousie

Hi Angela and Mikko,

The three units are now at the DHL depot in Tallinn awaiting import fee payment, before being shipped locally to you.

Please can you arrange to pay them on this occasion and we will reimburse you.

Hi Angela,

The latest update from DHL is by end of day, on the 23rd December. Pending any import duties are paid promptly. I hope that gives you time to manually fulfill those Christmas orders!

Thanks for your patience,

Hi Seb,

Thank you for your prompt action. We accept the solution you provided. Our customers purchased the Cera System as Christmas presents, so they are eagerly anticipating their order. That's why we need to restock as soon as possible.

Happy Holidays! 🎄🎄

Hi Mikko,

I echo Sarah's sentiments, they have left our Warehouse but seemingly haven't left our couriers local depot.

I have attempted to ship via DHL International Express (ETA. 2-6 Days), you will likely incur Import Duties - if you could pay on this occasion, provide a receipt and we will issue you a refund.

I hope this is OK - I will forward a tracking number once issued by DHL.

I can only reiterate how sorry we are!

Best wishes,

Seb Bousie

Hi Seb and Sarah,

I am following up on the shipment of the three units with tracking number H04G0C0006026743.

The tracking link shows that the units have not moved since December 4th and indicate that they are still at the shipper's warehouse:

<https://globaleco.app/track/H04G0C0006026743>

Could you please confirm whether the units have left your warehouse and provide an update on the status? We are hoping to receive this shipment soon as many of these units are intended as Christmas presents.

Thanks for your help, and apologies for starting a new email thread, but we were not receiving replies on the previous one.
