

Electronic Signature Authorization

This Electronic Signature Authorization (this “Authorization”) is made as of 11/06/2025 (the “Effective Date”) by and among Gusto, Inc. (dba Gusto), a Delaware limited liability company, and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, “Gusto”), and [Company Name] (the “Customer”) and [Person Authorized to Sign for Customer] (the “Signatory,” with Customer and Gusto, each a “Party,” and together the “Parties”).

Whereas, Gusto is committed to doing business in the most efficient and effective way possible, and in order for Gusto to provide seamless service and assist the Customer with the completion of payroll tax filing forms and deposits, certain legally required forms and applications including state and local specific authorization forms, applications and tax notice responses will need to be submitted by or on behalf of the Customer with the assistance of Gusto. This Authorization sets forth the terms and conditions under which Gusto and duly authorized employees and agents of Gusto (“Gusto Authorized Personnel”) may use the Signatory’s electronic signature attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Electronic Signature”) for the limited purpose of executing certain limited Power of Attorney and other required authorization forms, and other related documents, as described in Exhibit B (the “Authorized Documents”) on behalf of Signatory, as an authorized representative of the Customer. To facilitate administrative efficiencies, the Customer authorizes Gusto to use and apply the Electronic Signature for the limited purposes set forth herein.

The Customer and Signatory specifically acknowledge and agree that:

1. Electronic Signature Authorization. As of the Effective Date, the Customer and Signatory hereby authorize Gusto and Gusto Authorized Personnel to affix the Signatory’s Electronic Signature to the Authorized Documents subject to the following limitations and qualifications:
 - (i) The Electronic Signature may only be used by Signatory themselves, Gusto, Gusto Authorized Personnel, or by someone specifically authorized by the Customer in writing or via electronic communication, and only for the purpose of signing the Authorized Documents.
 - (ii) Nothing in this Authorization shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, or other agency relationship between Gusto and the Customer and Signatory beyond that which is expressly provided herein. Gusto shall not have the right, power, or authority to act as a legal representative of Customer or Signatory, to assume or create any obligations on behalf of Customer or Signatory, or bind Customer or Signatory in any respect whatsoever other than as expressly provided herein.
 - (iii) For the avoidance of doubt, Gusto shall not and does not have the authority to make decisions for the Customer or Signatory regarding their payroll, payroll taxes, time tracking, labor, or human resources. Gusto’s authority under this Authorization only extends to preparing the forms and documents pursuant to Customer’s decisions and instructions and to affix the Signatory’s authorized Electronic Signature to such documents in order to do business in the most efficient and effective way possible, and in order for Gusto to provide seamless service and assist the Customer.

2. Legal Effect of Electronic Signature. Under federal law, an electronic signature is “an electronic sound, symbol, or process, attached to or logically associated with a contract or other record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the record.” Customer acknowledges and agrees that Signatory’s Electronic Signature attached, affixed, or otherwise associated with the Authorized Documents, by Gusto and Gusto Authorized Personnel as authorized by this Authorization is legally enforceable and shall have the same force and effect as an original signature and shall be deemed (i) to be “written” or “in writing” or an “electronic record,” (ii) to have been signed and (iii) to constitute a record established and maintained in the ordinary course of business pursuant to the relevant electronic signature laws including Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (“UETA”) as adopted by the applicable jurisdiction(s), the Electronic Signature and Records Act (“ESRA”) as adopted in New York, and the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (“ESIGN”) as if the Signatory signs and executes such Authorized Documents by electronic signature. Signatory and Customer hereby acknowledge Customer’s intent to sign and execute the Authorized Documents and shall not challenge the validity of Signatory’s Electronic Signature executing the Authorized Documents on the ground that Customer did not intend to sign such documents, provided Gusto and/or Gusto Authorized Personnel utilize and apply such Electronic Signature in accordance with this Authorization.

Customer and Signatory further agree the Electronic Signature shall constitute an original written record when printed from electronic files. Such paper copies, if introduced as evidence in any judicial, arbitral, mediation or administrative proceeding, will be admissible as between the Parties to the same extent and under the same conditions as other original business records created and maintained in documentary form.

3. Representation and Warranties of Signatory. Signatory and Customer, through their signing of this Authorization, represent and warrant that Signatory has the necessary authorization to execute this Authorization on behalf of Customer and to delegate to Gusto and Gusto Authorized Personnel the authority to use the Electronic Signature for the purposes of completing the Authorized Documents. The Customer and the Signatory have reviewed any and all relevant electronic signature policies and manuals and confirm that the authorization as provided herein does not violate the Customer’s internal policies.
4. Term and Termination. This Authorization will remain valid until the earliest of (a) such time the Signatory is no longer serving as an authorized representative of the Customer, (b) such time as Gusto is no longer serving as Customer’s Administrator as such term is defined in the Administrative Services Agreement entered into between Gusto and Customer, or (c) Customer or Signatory’s written revocation of this Authorization.

The Customer shall notify Gusto in writing immediately if the Signatory is no longer serving as an authorized representative of the Customer, or if the Signatory otherwise loses the authority to execute agreements on behalf of Customer.

5. Counterparts. This Authorization may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which may be executed by less than all parties, each of which shall be enforceable against the parties actually executing such counterparts, and all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, electronic mail (including pdf) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.
6. Prior Agreements. Except as otherwise stated herein, this Authorization supersedes any and all signature authorization practices and policies adopted by and between the Parties, including any prior delegations of authority.

I am authorizing federal, state, and local employment tax regulators to disclose otherwise confidential tax information to Gusto relating to employment tax reporting and deposits, including disclosure required to process authorization forms. Disclosure authority is effective upon signature of the taxpayer. The authority granted to Gusto will not revoke any IRS Power of Attorney (Form 2848) or Tax Information Authorization (Form 8821) in effect.
